

Walter Rouse

Stanford University | Class of 2023

"I have known Coach Remmo since 7th grade. Even though I didn't believe myself, Coach Remmo always believed in me. He told me that one day I would play college football as an offensive lineman. I did not believe him at the time but fast forward to now, I am the starting left tackle at Stanford University. In the time that I have been fortunate enough to be coached by Coach Remmo, he taught me the fundamentals of being an offensive lineman that I used to get me to where I am today."

"My name is Miles Brown. I am a Professional Athlete. I was truly blessed by GOD when Coach Remmo walked through the doors of Sidwell Friends my Junior year of high school. He was dedicated to pulling the absolute best out of me. Motivated by love, compassion, and grit, Coach Remmo helped me excel in both football and wrestling. Every single day, Coach Remmo offered an unmatched level of structured chaos, where growth is allowed to take its form. At the end of my high school career, Sidwell Football had won its first conference championship in almost ten years. I went on to become a conference champion in wrestling, only having 1-2 years of experience at the time. In my third wrestling season and final year at Sidwell, with Coach Remmo in my corner, I was a referee's decision away from being a National Champion. 'Why not you?', he would always ask me... HERE I AM."

Jack Peters

First Team All-State Offensive Lineman, All-State Wrestler
The Potomac School | Class of 2022

“Coach Remmo began coaching me when I was a freshman during football season. Coach Remmo made an immediate impact on me by teaching me new, innovative football skills, and also life skills in general. My athletic career changed when Coach approached me about wrestling. My timid freshman self was reluctant to wrestle, but Coach convinced me that wrestling was the best thing I could do for myself as a person and a football player. Wrestling was tough my freshman and sophomore year, but after those years it became clear that wrestling was truly the best thing to do to optimize my football skills and get stronger. Looking back on my years with Coach Remmo, it's clear that he coaches beyond the sport. Coach Remmo has significantly changed my life, helping me grow as a person and as a scholar-athlete.”
