

Dan Wolff
Director, Flag Football

Dan Wolff has been the Learning Specialist in Potomac's Upper School since 2014. Currently, he is the Head JV Football Coach, the Varsity Football Special Teams Coordinator, and the Varsity Football Defensive Line Coach. Dan is also the weights and conditioning coordinator for the winter season and a Varsity assistant baseball coach in the spring. Prior to coming to The Potomac School, he taught special education in the emotional disabilities program at Walt Whitman High School from 2008-14. He was the defensive coordinator for the football program for over five years and was also an assistant coach for the wrestling program for three years. Additionally, Dan coached baseball for eight years for the KOA sports program, based out of Bethesda.

Dan is a 2001 graduate of Walt Whitman High School in Bethesda. After Whitman, he attended a post-graduate year at Bridgton Academy in Bridgton, Maine. (A quick fact about Bridgton: it is the oldest and only one-year post-graduate program in the country. Dan graduated from High Point University in North Carolina in 2006 with a Bachelor of Science in Sport Management. Following High Point, he enrolled in Johns Hopkins University School of Education, where received a master's degree in special education with an emphasis in mild to moderate disabilities.
