

Coach Krystal Ferguson

Director of Elite: Girls Basketball Camp

Grades 7-9

Coach Krystal has been involved in basketball and athletics for 25 years, first as an avid basketball player, and now in the role of mentor and coach. Krystal grew up in Lynchburg, VA where she attended E.C. Glass High School. During her time there, she was part of the varsity basketball team for four years and was elected team captain for two of those years. In addition, she played competitively on an AAU team. Krystal is a graduate of James Madison University and the University of Maryland - College Park. During the day, Coach Krystal, is a senior director at an education technology company. Coach Krystal began her coaching career shortly after undergrad on the AAU circuit. She expanded her all-girls AAU club in 2019, PV Thunder, to a 501c(3) non-profit with only 1 team to an organization that now supports 14 teams.

Besides coaching the PV Thunder girls, she also serves as the Head Varsity Coach at The Potomac School. Prior to joining the Potomac School, she assisted the McLean High School varsity girls program with winning their first district championship in 42 years! During her 5 season tenure at McLean, the team played in 4 district championships and won 2 of them. Prior to joining the McLean coaching staff, Krystal served as the head varsity coach at a local private school where she was able to rebuild the program, which resulted in the schools first appearance and ranking in the VISAA state tournament. Krystal brings her experience and passion for working with youth to help female athletes become the best players AND people that they can!
